USCA4 Appeal: 20-6135 Doc: 62 Filed: 08/05/2021 Pg: 3 of 4

PER CURIAM:

John Doe appeals the district court's orders denying his Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) motion for relief from the district court's prior order dismissing his 28 U.S.C. § 2255 motion, denying his motion to seal, denying his motions to proceed by pseudonym, and denying reconsideration. First addressing the motions to seal and to proceed by pseudonym, we have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm these portions of the district court's orders.

Turning to the portions of the district court's orders denying Doe's Rule 60(b) motion and denying reconsideration, these portions of the orders are not appealable unless a circuit justice or judge issues a certificate of appealability. 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(1)(B). See generally United States v. McRae, 793 F.3d 392, 400 & n.7 (4th Cir. 2015). A certificate of appealability will not issue absent "a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right." 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). When the district court denies relief on the merits, a prisoner satisfies this standard by demonstrating that reasonable jurists would find the district court's assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong. See Buck v. Davis, 137 S. Ct. 759, 773-74 (2017). When the district court denies relief on procedural grounds, the prisoner must demonstrate both that the dispositive procedural ruling is debatable and that the motion states a debatable claim of the denial of a constitutional right. Gonzalez v. Thaler, 565 U.S. 134, 140-41 (2012) (citing Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000)).

We have independently reviewed the record and conclude that Doe has not made the requisite showing. Accordingly, we deny a certificate of appealability and dismiss this USCA4 Appeal: 20-6135 Doc: 62 Filed: 08/05/2021 Pg: 4 of 4 portion of the appeal. We deny Doe's motions to recuse. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
